

Slate of Nominees 2021

PAT DUNWOODY

Pat is a client and relationship-focused executive with an in-depth background in all aspects of the investment fund industry. She brings a strategic perspective and demonstrates a clear grasp of the drivers behind client satisfaction and the impact on the bottom-line.

She has spent over 35 years in the Financial Services industry and is currently the Executive Director of the Canadian ETF Association. She has been an active member on many industry committees including: Co-chair of the first Industry Standards Committees, Participation on Fundserv committees, and CCMA Committees,

Pat is also actively involved in her community, serving as the Immediate Past Board Chair for Community Living Dufferin and a Board member with Prosper Canada.

She lives in East Garafraxa, Ontario with her husband and dog Otis.

Ed is a member of the Mistawasis First Nation in Saskatchewan but has spent his career in Ottawa. He has worked as the Executive Director of the National Association of Friendship Centres in Ottawa and the Native Canadian Centre of Toronto, respectively.

Joining the federal Department of the Solicitor General of Canada (later Public Safety Canada) in 1984, Ed led an Aboriginal Policy Unit responsible for community corrections, crime prevention and community safety planning, including a focus on Aboriginal street gangs and missing and murdered Aboriginal women. Ed spearheaded approaches to healing, using communities' traditional cultural and spiritual approaches. For his work, Ed was awarded the 2002 APEX Award for Leadership within the Executive cadre of the federal public service.

Ed is also a proud father and grandfather.

ED BULLER

